1. An unidentified artillery unit is quartered in the barracks on ulica Nowotki in Suwalki (Sh OSR 2236 B). The barracks complex consists of twelve buildings of various sizes. The complex is 400 meters wide and 700 meters long and is surrounded by a board fence of undetermined height. Most of the buildings are of red brick, and all of them except one, a stable, are two stories high.
2. The artillery unit has about 40 cannons which are on rubber wheels and are pulled by trucks. The caliber of the weapons is not known. It is believed that the unit also has howitzers and mortars. Some heavy machine guns were observed; it is estimated that the unit has about twelve of them. The unit is also equipped with four anti-aircraft guns and an unidentified number of KB's and PPS's. The unit has about 40 trucks. Some of the guns are pulled by horses. About 60 horses are assigned to the unit.
3. Soldiers and officers of the artillery unit wear gray uniforms which resemble those worn by the MO. The piping on the hats is dark blue.
4. The organization of the unit is not known, but it is believed that the unit consists of about 1,000 men. The number of the unit is also not known; however, [] this is a light field artillery regiment which is not up to strength.
